CENTER'S OPPORTUNITY

Centre College has received an extension of the time in which to meet the terms under which it may obtain $200,000 from the General Education Board in New York. The time limit under which the offer was made ended July 1, but the extension gives until the end of next December. The requirement is that Centre raise a fund of $300,000 for its endowment.

Centre is a Presbyterian College in the sense that it has been endowed largely by Presbyterians. But it is a Kentucky college in the broadest sense. Its scholastic, as well as its athletic fame, has reflected credit on Kentucky and on Kentuckians. Centre needs endowment to enable it to keep pace with its increasing prestige. The facilities are insufficient to meet the demands of enlarging attendance.

The million-dollar campaign for Christian education in Kentucky will have the care of the raising of the fund. The principal solicitation will be among Presbyterians, but everybody is invited to show appreciation of the alma mater of so many of Kentucky's men of note.

Aside from all sentiment, it will be good business for Kentucky to respond liberally to the request for money for Centre. Success will show that Kentucky is alive to offers from outside sources. It will show an aggressive and enterprising spirit. It will enable Centre to compete more successfully with the richly endowed colleges of other States and this will mean that Kentucky boys will not be under pressure to go away from this State to receive advanced education.

Kentucky is a proud State. It is proud of Centre. The endowment offered affords Kentuckians a chance to show that State pride is based on present ability as well as on memory of past achievement.

DYE A SWEATER AND SKIRT WITH DIAMOND DYES

Every "Diamond Dyes" package tells how to dye or tint any worn, faded garment or drapery a new rich color that will not streak, spot, fade, or run. Perfect home dyeing is guaranteed with Diamond Dyes even if you have never dyed before. Just tell the druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods. For fifty-one years millions of women have been using "Diamond Dyes" to add years of wear to their old, shabby waists, skirts, dresses, coats, sweaters, stockings, draperies, hangings, everything! ### "UNITED WE STAND"

There is nothing of greater importance to us than the prosperity of our community. Prosperity at home is based on local conditions.

Let us get together for a better town by working in a spirit of harmony and co-operation.

Not only should we promote the business success of the people and interests of the town in general; but show our appreciation of having the chance to provide for ourselves the necessities of life through the prosperity of our town.

The old motto of "United We Stand" should appeal to us as being necessary to encourage what is best for our town, for without unity we can accomplish nothing.

"IN THE DAYS OF AULD LANG SYNE."

There's no denying that to most of us there is a certain satisfaction in reviewing the events of long ago, as they are presented to us, either casually, or by force of some reminiscent strain of the moment. And to those who lived here in the long ago the recalling of events in the old days of Paris affords a peculiar satisfaction all its own. They, perhaps, more than we who have grown used to the old place, will appreciate these items, taken at random from a copy of THE BOURBON NEWS of Friday, April '98, 1882:

Everybody in town has an opening to-morrow. THE BOURBON NEWS will even open its books to credit subscriptions.

A. T. Forsyth, auctioneer, sold at public sale Wednesday, the farm of the late Benjamin Bowen, of 376 acres near Kiser's Station, to H. C. Bowen, at $40 per acre.

The latest of the two hundred new cars for the Kentucky Central Railroad were received from the factory last week. The railroad is now very fairly equipped.

The city of Paris was fined $100 and costs Wednesday by the Commonwealth for permitting the streets blocked by colored folks in front of some up-town saloons.

Ever thoughtful of the public's wants, and for the thorough diffusion of the valuable information, we stop the press a moment to announce that Dr. Charlie Fithian, Billy Shaw, Jr., and Mildred Kenney didn't usher any at the circus.

C. Webling, the butcher, will move in a few days to the building now being reported by John T. Hinton, on the corner near the Thurston House, opposite Hill's marble works.

The City Council convened in extra session Wednesday night, and re-licensed all the saloons in the city. They contemplate adding another deputy marshal at an early date, we understand.

John Avritt, son of Mrs. Avritt, of this city, has charge of a sheep ranch near Tombstone, Arizona. He writes back that sheep are sold at 25 cents each, and chickens as high as $1.25.

A Nicholas county man at the circus Tuesday, remarked "the reason this show didn't go to Carlisle, was that there wasn't level ground enough to set the big tents on."

Cynthiana and Carlisle only sent four or five representatives to the great Barnes revival, but sent large delegations to the circus. There's nothing like taste, you know.

McCreary, from Boyd's Station, while drunk, fell off the second porch of the Bourbon House to the pavement, Tuesday night, and was considerably bruised. He is still confined to his room.

POSTED!

I hereby forewarn all persons, that my farm is posted, and all trespassers either hunting or fishing on my premises will be prosecuted to the extent of the law.

My friends will please not ask the privilege of violating my positive resolution.

JESSE TURNEY.

Yesterday evening as the Maysville passenger train was backing up to the junction, Rudolph Davis, a twelve-year-old son of Geo. W. Davis, of this city, jumped from the train when passing the freight depot, struck a clearing post which threw him down. In the fall, one arm fell under the wheels, which cut the hand off near the wrist.

The great circus of Sells Bros. showed to about 6,000 persons at each of their entertainments Tuesday. This is about the only circus that has ever shown in our city that has come fully up to the pictures on the walls. Its immensity cannot be excelled by anything in the show line now on the road. This company's receipts average about $5,000 per day, which leaves quite a margin for profits after deducting their expenses, which are about $1,500 per day—$500 of which is for advertising alone.

The 63rd anniversary of Odd Fellowship was celebrated by Bourbon Lodge No. 23, Wednesday night at their hall in this city, at which a fair croud listened to the exercises of the evening. An impromptu choir composed of a score of young ladies and gentlemen of the city, kindly favored the exercises with sweet music. Emmett Dickson, a talented member of the order, and a shining light of the Paris bar, delivered the welcome address in a few well-timed remarks appropriate for the occasion, after which Prof. H. R. Blaisdell, Principal of the City School, read a condensed history of Bourbon Lodge. Following the history of Bourbon Lodge, W. H. Holt, Grand Master of Kentucky, entertained the audience in an address of one hour, on "True Odd Fellowship," which was replete with thoughts altogether foreign to the old manner of society addresses on similar occasions, which was well received by the brotherhood.

NEW AUTO OWNERS

The Franklin Motor Company, of Lexington, reports the sale of a Franklin touring car to Clay Costigan, of Paris, and a Franklin Sedan to Mrs. James R. Stivers, of Paris.

It will be a fine winter—for the plumbers.

RETAILERS INCREASE THEIR ADVERTISING SPACE

According to Homer O. McCabe, executive secretary of the Wisconsin Retail Clothiers' Association, clothing merchants all over the State have increased their advertising budgets during the last year. In Milwaukee alone, it is estimated that retailers have bought 25 per cent more space in 1922 than they did at this time a year ago.

In Madison, Jamesville, Racine, Beloit, Superior and other cities, clothiers have increased their advertising appropriations as much as 75 per cent. Perhaps the most outstanding example of far sightedness is the Hurley-Reilly Company, of Milwaukee. Peter A. McBride, head of the firm and president of the State clothiers, increased the store's annual expenditure by 100 per cent.

In the smaller towns of the State retail clothiers are maintaining the same volume of advertising as last year, but are putting it up in the form of co-operative movement. Circulars and pamphlets are being sent out once or twice a week in conjunction with the daily or semi-weekly newspapers of the town.

CONFEDERATE BANKS IN SOUTH THINNING OUT

Only 75,066 Confederate veterans out of more than 1,000,000 who fought for the South during the Civil War now are living, according to statistics compiled by Colonel Francis M. Burrows, of the staff of General Julian S. Carr, Commander-in-Chief of the United Confederate Veterans.

Of this number 65,707 are drawing pensions, 1,859 are in Soldiers' Homes and the whereabouts of 7,500 is unknown. The statistics show that 57,987 widows of Confederate soldiers are receiving pensions, and 667 negro veterans are in Homes.

Texas leads in the number of surviving veterans with 14,969 on the pension rolls and 256 in Homes. Georgia and Arkansas stand next with 9,000 pensioners and 105 and 100, respectively, in Homes.

There are only 1190 ex-Confederates in Kentucky now living; 1,000 draw pensions and 190 are in Confederate Homes and 1,250 widows draw pensions. There are no negroes pensioned.

ASKS PRAYERS FOR WOODROW WILSON'S RECOVERY

W. Jack Moore, of Washington, a former resident of Harrodsburg, has made an appeal to the nation through the newspapers to set aside from two to five minutes at the noon hour on Armistice Day, November 11, for prayer for the "healing of the tired and worn body of former President Woodrow Wilson." Mr. Moore asks in his public letter that "all right-thinking, peace loving and God fearing people invoke in unison God's loving mercy in the restoration to health of this would-be war emancipator who now is prostrate from an heroic, over zealous effort to translate into workable, conservative for his ideals."
